

POLMED

Board of Trustees Election: 2016

VOTING DATE: THURSDAY, 30 JUNE 2016

VOTING STATIONS & VOTING TIMES

Voting Stations	Voting Times
Designated Police Stations	(08:00 - 22:00)
Provincial & National Headquarters	(08:00 - 16:00)
Police Colleges, Academies and Special Units	Confirm with your nearest College/Unit

A full list of voting stations is available on request from the Returning Officer by telephone 011 704 1876/ 061 452 4499, Fax: 086 501 6108, e-mail: polmed@kdb.co.za or www.polmed.co.za

VOTING RULES

1. Ballot papers will be available at your voting station.
2. You may vote for one candidate only by making a cross or tick in the box next to the candidate of your choice.
3. To be allowed to vote, you must bring with you to the voting station your –
 - a. Barcoded Identity Document (ID) or
 - b. Drivers License, or
 - c. Police Appointment Certificate (Police ID)

LIST OF CANDIDATES & CVs

The following candidates are standing for elections and their names are appearing on the ballot paper:

NONDUMISO JAFTA

I am a black female born in Qumbu in the Eastern Cape. I graduated with a Btech in Policing. I am a continuation member in good standing and have never been declared insolvent.

I retired in 2012 after serving in the South African Police Service (SAPS) for 33 years. During my career I have served in various units of SAPS including Communications Office where I worked until I retired. I have received various awards and medals as the best communicator and a clean service record, including BUA awarded by the office of the Presidency for displaying commitment, dedication and discipline in government communication.

I am currently serving as a continuation Board of Trustees member for Polmed, serving in the Investment Committee which deals with funds, properties and bonds.

PUMZA MAKANYA: BJURIS, LLB

I joined the South African Police Service (SAPS) in June 1979 and took early retirement end of June 2009. I worked at UNISA Muckleneuk Campus from 1 July 2009 to 30 June 2014. Based in Pretoria, I am currently doing consultancy work in Human Resources and Training. Throughout my career in SAPS, I served in Gauteng, Kwa-Zulu Natal, Mpumalanga and the Eastern Cape. I advanced in police ranks from Police Constable to Major General.

My highlights were appointments as a Director: Legal Services at Head office; Provincial Head: Legal Services in Kwa-Zulu Natal and appointment as Deputy Provincial Commissioner: Support Services in Mpumalanga. I have positively participated in the transformation initiatives of SAPS, using Women Network as the platform, which won me Provincial and National Women Network Champion Award. At UNISA I was a Director for Staffing and Client Services and Employee Relations including the Bargaining Forum.